

Many young athletes come from all around California to participate in the annual Special Olympics Winter Games that are held at China Peak Ski Resort. The event is made possible by donations.

China Peak Resort Set To Host Special Olympic Winter Games February 21-23

Unique athletes will be coming to China Peak Ski Resort for the 2016 Shaver Lake Special Olympics Winter Games. They will be held Sunday Feb. 21 to Tuesday, Feb. 23.

Dozens of student athletes that live in the Central Valley come to China Peak annually compete in several Alpine and Nordic Skiing events.

These young men and women deserve your support. Set aside some time and come up to cheer these young men and women as they take on the runs at China

Peak. The event is made possible by the hard work of the local community. Free lodging is provided by local cabin owners.

“Donations are used to purchase food and awards for each participant,” says Event Chair Barbara Hankins.

“Dinner will be served on Sunday and Monday and breakfast on Monday and Tuesday.”

Donation checks can be sent payable to the Shaver Lake Lions Special Olympics to Shaver Lake Special Olympics, P.O. Box 377, Shaver Lake, CA 93664.
