

Variety of Accommodations Offered for Winter Guests Planning a Trip to the Local Mountains

China Peak is located in a region that has been referred to as California's Best Kept Secret. It is the hub of many Fresno County winter activities. Most last more than a day and therefore require that visitors find a place to stay overnight or longer.

Fortunately China Peak Ski Resort provides onsite lodging. If they cannot accommodate you, there are several others that are conveniently close.

These facilities feature a complete range of amenities travelers desire. They range from a number of cozy cabins, elegant condos, bed and breakfast inns as well as full service resorts, comfortable motels, hotels and even an RV Campground.

The following regional facilities are listed below for your convenience. Some of facilities are Pet Friendly. Call ahead to see if you can bring yours!

Let them know that you heard about them from reading the China Peak Times!
